This four year guide is a recommended semester-by-semester plan of study for this major. All four year guides are meant as examples of how a degree can be completed in four years. Individual plans will be developed for each student in consultation with the academic advisor. Prior credit, course availability, and student needs must be considered in developing the individual plan.

Shaded areas of plan require special attention.

You must also meet the Fine Arts, Literary Studies, Historical Studies, and the Social Science Designations. Those may be met within the Integrative Learning Experience and the Liberal Studies Experience.

Additional Notes:

- Only one 1000 level ANT course may count towards the major.
- Students may not enroll in a course as a CAPSTONE if they have already taken the parallel seminar course.
- Summer Cultural Anthropology field schools offered through the department are also excellent options for elective courses, and may in some cases also substitute for ANT 3410.

- There are many opportunities to reorganize this four year plan. Please consult with your departmental advisor each term as you prepare for registration.
- Study abroad is strongly encouraged and the program of study outlined here can be adjusted to accommodate study abroad in any semester.
- Foreign Language is optional, but strongly recommended. Advanced courses may count towards concentration if advisor concurs.
- Minor is optional. Concentration credits may also count towards minor.
- Departmental Honors: any course may be contracted as an HONORS course if the instructor agrees and the course is suitable; HONORS research and thesis courses can fill the “open courses” at the Senior level.
- Residency Requirements:
  - 30 hours must be from ASU
  - 18 hours in the major must be from ASU
  - 9 hours in the minor must be from ASU
