Graphic Design students must pass two portfolio reviews to be admitted to the program. The first is the Art Department's Portfolio Review and students are advised to apply within the first year. The second portfolio review, Graphic Design Candidacy Portfolio Review, is held at the end of each semester. To apply, students must have completed or be enrolled in the following courses:

- ART 1001 Foundations I
- ART 1002 Foundations II
- ART 1003 Foundations Drawing
- ART 1102 Introduction to Graphic Design
- ART 2102 Typography I
- and either ART 2030 Art from Pre-History to 1400 or ART 2130 Art from 1400 to the Present.

- Graphic Design's required courses are usually not offered in the summer. Graphic Design electives are occasionally offered. Students can satisfy some of their studio art and art history requirements over the summer and/or undertake an internship.

Group advising sessions are held each semester prior to registration. Students are encouraged to seek individual advising from their advisor at any time.

It will take a minimum of five semesters to complete all of the required courses in Graphic Design. In planning their course of study, students should be mindful of the fact that the required Graphic Design courses have specific Graphic Design and Studio Art prerequisites.

Students can take ART 1102 Introduction to Graphic Design and ART 2102 Typography I at the same time.

The prerequisites for ART 4102 Typography III include:

- ART 2103 Drawing II
- ART 2026 Photographic Design I
- ART 3102 Typography II
- ART 3302 Idea Lab

The prerequisites for ART 3202 Interaction Design I are the same as the ones for ART 4102 Typography III with the addition of ART 2104 Digital Imaging.

ART 3202 Interaction Design I and ART 4102 Typography III can be taken at the same time.

ART 4192 Graphic Design Senior Seminar is required before taking ART 4202 Graphic Design Senior Studio.

Students are encouraged to contact any of the Graphic Design faculty with specific questions about the major. More information about each course is available in the Undergraduate Academic Bulletin.
