Additional Notes:

- Appalachian State University participates in a bilateral exchange program with the University of Angers that offers a wide variety of courses that can be used to meet major requirements. Information about other study abroad opportunities in French-speaking countries is available in the Office of International Education and Development All majors interested in studying abroad should discuss their plans in detail with an academic advisor a year or more in advance.
- No more than 46 hours in FRE may be counted towards the degree.
- Minor outside French required for this degree.
- Foreign language requirement:
  - This plan is predicated on the assumption that entering freshmen who propose to major in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures with a concentration in French and Francophone Studies have some language skill.
    - For students who place above FRE 1010, 1020, 1040 or 1050, those courses in the Four Year Guide should be replaced with Free Electives.
    - Due to the various levels at which students enter the language major, significant adjustments to the 4-year plan may be necessary.
  - Student must take the Foreign Language Placement Test to determine starting course for the foreign language sequence.
  - If FRE 1010 & 1020 taken for prerequisite purposes, they will count in place of 6 hours of Free Electives (3 hours per course).
  - FRE 1050 may be used in both major and Gen Ed requirements. If used to fulfill a Gen Ed Perspective theme course, replace one "Gen Ed Perspective" with Free Elective.
  - FRE 1060 may substitute for FRE 1040 & 1050.
  - Foreign language classes can be taken in summer semesters.
- Residency Requirements:
  - 31 hours overall must be from ASU
  - 18 hours in the major must be from ASU
  - 9 hours in the minor must be from ASU
